ABOUT FEDORA

FEDORA – The European Circle of Philanthropists of Opera and Ballet is a non-profit association committed to supporting and contributing to the future of opera and dance in Europe. The association was founded in 2013 in Paris, under the presidency of Jérôme-François Zieseniss, in homage to Rolf Liebermann. FEDORA's main objective is to encourage emerging artists to renew these genres, thus making opera and dance more accessible, while fostering the emergence of new business models. In order to achieve this goal, FEDORA raises funds to stimulate innovation in the sector not only on, but also behind and beyond the stage, fostering its sustainable, inclusive and digital transformation.

FEDORA aims to drive such change through two funding programmes for opera houses, dance companies and festivals:

THE FEDORA PLATFORM

Since 2017, the FEDORA Platform has been selected as a beneficiary of the Creative Europe programme, cumulating a support of more than 4 million euros. Thanks to this funding, FEDORA is strengthening its impact on the opera and dance sector in Europe. The interactive platform – www.fedora-platform.com – acts as a European hub: a European quality label, promoting innovative opera and ballet co-productions created by emerging artists from various disciplines. This showcase of European creation encourages the engagement of audiences by allowing them to participate in the funding and promotion of projects through participatory funding campaigns and online voting. In 2020, FEDORA is contributing to the launch of the new online platform – Transnational Giving Europe – simplifying the process of cross-border donations in Europe.

THE FEDORA PRIZES BIENNALE

Since 2013, the FEDORA Prizes have been encouraging the next generation of talent to bring the unexpected to the stage and international audiences. The four established prizes - opera, dance, education and digital - support cutting-edge artistic projects that promote international collaboration, creativity, social integration and intercultural dialogue, as well as digital innovation. The FEDORA Prize competition was called "the biggest opera and ballet competition in the world" in 2019 by Das Erste - Europamagazin.

In 2022, the Prizes Competition evolved into a Biennale, and for the first time the nominated projects had the chance to pitch their projects to the jury, who evaluated the evolution and feasibility of their work, while taking into consideration their crowdfunding campaigns, and selected the four winners.

THE NEXT STAGE INITIATIVE

In 2021, FEDORA and Opera Europa launched the Next Stage initiative to drive change and reinvigorate the opera and dance sector in response to the impact of the pandemic. The initiative provides financial support (€250,000 for the first edition) and professional training to stimulate innovation in the fields of sustainability, inclusivity and digital transformation.

The Next Stage Grants financially support projects that help create new industry standards and opportunities.

Moreover, through the Next Stage Forums, professional development and trainings will be given to management and artistic teams to boost knowledge sharing and peer-learning in these fields.

PRESS HIGHLIGHTS

"The Shell Trial," produced by Dutch National Opera (DNO), has been nominated for the Fedora Opera Prize. The FEDORA Opera Prize was created to support pioneering artistic projects that promote international collaboration, creativity, social inclusion and intercultural dialogue.'

Le Monde

- 2018 -

"FEDORA's initiative to innovate in opera and ballet funding might just be essential to the long-term survival of the artforms in Europe amidst a climate of decreasing public funding for the arts. It could also provide answers to getting younger audiences in the door, seeing work with which they can personally connect."

Forbes

- 2019 -

"FEDORA, a European non-profit founded in 2014 by Jérôme-François Zieseniss, has invested in a new online platform dedicated to opera and ballet projects. 'It's about creating communities around projects in the making.' Gänz says, 'Our goal is to say that philanthropy isn't just for big companies and foundations or the wealthy. Everyone can make a difference.'"

FT FINANCIAL TIMES

- 2019 -

"A l'échelle européenne, un club est déjà très actif dans le mécénat, Fedora, qui fête ses dix ans. « Ce cercle européen des philanthropes pour l'opéra et la danse encourage les jeunes artistes à renouveler ces genres afin de les rendre plus accessibles, et favorise l'émergence de nouveaux modèles économiques en levant des fonds privés », explique Edilia Gänz, sa directrice."

Les Echos

- 2023 -

"Fedora is definitely a success story ... it's a necessity that culture opens up to society, also economically". That anchors it more in society again, instead of remaining too much in the ivory tower and depending only on state subsidies, says Alexander Neef, Director General of the Paris Opera since September 2020.
