

FEDORA EDUCATION PRIZE - APPLICATION GUIDELINES -

I. EVALUATION CRITERIA

1. Quality
Why is the project a great idea and how will it be implemented?
2. Participation
Who will participate in the project and how will they be involved?
3. Diversity
What measures are undertaken to encourage an intercultural and social dialogue?
4. Legacy
What sustainable impact does the project have on the involved stakeholders and beyond?
5. Inspiration
What multiplication effect for the future does the project offer and does it have the capacity to be rolled-out by other organizations?

FEDORA EDUCATION PRIZE - APPLICATION GUIDELINES -

II. APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

Applicants

- There is no application fee when applying for the FEDORA Prizes. However, the lead company needs to be a FEDORA member. Affiliate Membership starts at € 500 per year.
- Applications can only be submitted in English online on the official website www.fedora-platform.com before the deadline. The applying team must designate one key contact person representing the lead company. This person is in charge of submitting the complete application online and must remain the key contact person of the project for FEDORA and the FEDORA Prize sponsors.

Shortlisted projects

- If the project is shortlisted, it will be published on the FEDORA Platform and the general audience can vote for the project. The project with the most votes will receive a symbolic FEDORA Prize at the FEDORA Prizes Award Night in summer 2019.

Nominated projects

- If nominated by the jury or by the public after the "Call for votes" phase, the lead company is in charge of managing a crowdfunding campaign during the "Call for donations" phase on the FEDORA Platform www.fedora-platform.com in spring 2019. The nominated projects will sign a contract on behalf of the partners with FEDORA in order to receive a budget to create a promotional video about their project that will be used for the crowdfunding campaign.

Winning projects

- If selected as a winning project, the lead company is in charge of managing the FEDORA funds and is responsible for submitting an activity report about the actual fund investment.
- The winner of the FEDORA Prizes will sign a contract on behalf of the partners with FEDORA. This agreement document outlines the terms and conditions of the transfer of the FEDORA funds, access to rehearsals and opening nights and communications.

FEDORA EDUCATION PRIZE - APPLICATION GUIDELINES -

III. LIST OF REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

- Logo of lead company
- Logos of partners
- Signed collaboration agreements (letter of intent or drafted collaboration agreements are accepted at the application stage, however, if nominated by the jury or public vote, the project needs to provide the signed collaboration agreements)
- CV of each member of the artistic team/project team
- Presentation of the project budget
- Presentation of the usage of the FEDORA funds and sources of other funds
- Image representing the project in HD and copyright with right to use in FEDORA's on- and offline communications

Non-mandatory documents:

- Letters of recommendation
- Examples of past projects and music or choreographic style (e.g. YouTube link)
- Pictures, sketches, drawings, etc.

